UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE DIVISION

U. S. DISTRICT COURT
W. DIST. OF N. C.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA) DOCKET NO. 3:05CR321-Mu
 v.)
) PLEA AGREEMENT
 INTERORDNANCE, INC.)

NOW COMES the United States of America, by and through Gretchen C.F. Shappert, United States Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, and defendants Interordnance, Inc. and Interordnance of America, L.P., through counsel, Clifford C. Marshall, Esq., and respectfully inform the Court that they have reached the following agreement:

I. Plea

1. Interordnance, Inc. (hereafter, "the defendant"), pursuant to an express written authorization by its Board of Directors, agrees to enter a voluntary plea of guilty to Count One as set forth in the Bill of Information, and admits to being in fact guilty as charged in that count.
2. If the Court finds the defendant's plea to be voluntarily and knowingly made, and accepts the plea, then the United States will move at the appropriate time to dismiss those counts of the Bill of Indictment and Superseding Bill of Indictment in United States v. Interordnance of America, L.P., et al., Docket No. 3:04CR15-Mu, as they pertain to defendants Interordnance, Inc., Interordnance of America, L.P., Interordnance of Waffendhandel GMBH, and Weigand Ordnance GMBH.
3. The defendant agrees that the Court may consider any such dismissed counts and all pertinent information as "relevant conduct," United States Sentencing Guidelines [U.S.S.G.] § 1B1.3. The Court may also consider any dismissed count as a "conviction" for purposes of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1918 (costs of prosecutions, including fines and forfeitures) and 1920 (court costs, including fees for interpreters), as well as for purposes of forfeiture and restitution.

II. Sentence

4. The defendant is aware that the statutory minimum and maximum sentences for each count are as follows:

Count One: a $250,000 fine, no more than five (5) years imprisonment, or both, and no more than three (3) years supervised release.

5. The defendant understands that supervised release is a term of supervision that runs consecutively to any sentence of incarceration and that if the Court imposes a term of supervised release, the United States Probation Office will supervise him during that term and will require that it make regular reports and visits to its office. The defendant understands that a violation of the conditions of supervised release may subject him to an additional period of incarceration up to the maximum term of years imposed as supervised release.

6. The defendant is aware that the Court will consider the United States Sentencing Guidelines in determining the appropriate sentence, and that the sentence will be without parole. The defendant is further aware that the Court has not yet determined the sentence, that any estimate from any source, including defense counsel, of the likely sentence is a prediction rather than a promise, and that the Court has the final discretion to impose any sentence up to the statutory maximum for each count. The defendant further understands that no recommendations or agreements by the United States are binding upon the Court.

7. With regard to the Sentencing Guidelines, the defendant and the United States, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(B), agree to recommend to the Court as follows:

* Provided that the defendant clearly demonstrates acceptance of responsibility for its criminal conduct by, among other things, acknowledging to the Government, the Probation Office, and the Court the nature and extent of all relevant criminal conduct, the Government will recommend a two-level reduction in offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a). Provided that the defendant has further assisted authorities in the investigation or prosecution of its own misconduct by timely notifying authorities of its intention to enter a plea of guilty, the Government will move for an additional one-level reduction in offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(b). The United States will determine in its sole discretion whether to move for the additional one-level reduction. However, the defendant understands that any reduction in offense level is ultimately for the Court's determination.

8. The defendant agrees to pay full restitution, regardless of the resulting loss amount, which restitution will be included in the Court's Order of Judgment. The defendant agrees that such restitution will include all victims directly or indirectly harmed by the defendant's "relevant conduct," including conduct pertaining to any dismissed counts or uncharged conduct, as defined by U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3, regardless of whether such conduct constitutes an "offense" under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 or 3663A. The defendant consents to a civil judgment in state or federal court concerning a claim filed by a "victim" as defined in 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663(a)(2) and 3663A(a)(2). The defendant understands that with a Judgment and Commitment Order that requires the payment of restitution, a lien will be filed on its property. Defendant also understands that its obligation to make restitution shall last for twenty years after the entry of the judgment, release from imprisonment, or until its death. 18 U.S.C. § 3613.

For the preparation of its Presentence Report, the defendant agrees to cooperate fully with and make a full disclosure of all current and projected assets and property to the United States

Probation Office. If the defendant is ordered to serve a term of supervised release or probation, it agrees to make a full sworn disclosure of its assets and property to the United States Probation Office prior to its sentencing. If the defendant should fail to make the aforementioned full disclosures, then the United States will be relieved of its obligations under the Plea Agreement, but the defendant will not be allowed to withdraw its guilty plea.

The defendant agrees to truthfully complete a financial statement form provided by the United States Attorney. The defendant shall date said form and sign it under penalty of perjury, thereby acknowledging that its financial statement fully and completely discloses its financial condition as of the date it is signed. Defendant shall update the financial statement with any material changes to its financial condition. Defendant shall provide its signed and dated financial statement within 30 days of the entry of its plea and any updates within seven days of the event changing its financial condition. Defendant understands and agrees that its financial statement will be used for the determination and calculation of any fine or restitution ordered by the Court. If requested by the United States Attorney's Office, the defendant (or its authorized representative) shall submit to an oral examination concerning its financial statement at a time and place and under conditions specified by the United States Attorney. The United States may also require the defendant to submit documents in support of its financial statement. The parties agree that the defendant's failure to timely and accurately complete and sign a financial statement and any update, submit to an oral examination, or provide requested documents, may constitute its failure to accept responsibility under U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1. This action is in addition to any other penalty or remedy authorized by law. Further, the defendant understands that its obligation to submit financial information in accordance with its agreement continues for as long as any assessment, fine or restitution is outstanding

9. The parties agree that the Court shall set the amount of fine and shall consider the Fine Table in U.S.S.G. § 5E1.2 as advisory.

10. If more than $500.00 in restitution, fines, and/or assessment is owed to the United States government, a lien will be filed. The defendant understands that if a lien is filed against its property, its obligation to pay restitution shall last for twenty years after any term of probation ordered. 18 U.S.C. § 3613.

11. The defendant hereby agrees to pay the total amount required for assessment ($100) to the Clerk, United States District Court, before 5:00 p.m. on the date of sentencing.

III. Procedure

12. The defendant agrees that a duly-qualified federal Magistrate Judge may conduct the hearing required by Fed. R. Crim. P. 11.

13. With the Court's permission, the factual basis, as required by Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(b)(3), will be deferred until the time of sentencing. The defendant stipulates that there is a factual basis for the plea of guilty and that the Court may use the offense conduct set out in the Presentence

Report, except any facts to which the defendant has objected, to establish a factual basis for the defendant's plea.

IV. Waivers

14. The defendant understands and agrees that if it should fail to specifically perform or to fulfill completely each and every one of its obligations under this Plea Agreement, then the United States will be relieved of its obligations under the agreement, but the defendant will not be allowed to withdraw its guilty plea.

15. The defendant is aware that the law provides certain limited rights to withdraw a plea of guilty. The defendant has discussed these rights with defense counsel and knowingly and expressly waives any right to withdraw the plea once the District Court has accepted it.

16. The defendant acknowledges that Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(f) and Federal Rule of Evidence 410 are rules which ordinarily limit the admissibility of statements made by a defendant in the course of plea discussions or plea proceedings if a guilty plea is later withdrawn. The defendant knowingly and voluntarily waives the rights which arise under these Rules. As a result of this waiver, it understands and agrees that any statements which are made in the course of its guilty plea or in connection with its cooperation pursuant to this plea agreement will be admissible against him for any purpose in any criminal or civil proceeding if its guilty plea is subsequently withdrawn.

17. The defendant understands and agrees that by pleading guilty, it is expressly waiving the following rights:

- a. to be tried by a jury;
- b. to be assisted by an attorney at trial;
- c. to confront and cross-examine witnesses; and,
- d. not to be compelled to incriminate himself.

18. Defendant and defendant's counsel warrant that they have discussed: (1) defendant's rights pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3742, 28 U.S.C. § 2255, and similar authorities to contest a conviction and/or sentence through an appeal or post-conviction after entering into a plea agreement; (2) whether or not there are potential issues which might be relevant to an appeal or post-conviction action; and (3) the possible impact of any such issue on the desirability to the defendant of entering into this plea agreement.

Defendant, in exchange for the concessions made by the United States in this plea agreement, waives all such rights to contest the conviction and/or the sentence except for: (1) claims of ineffective assistance of counsel, or (2) prosecutorial misconduct.

19. The defendant is aware that Pub. L. 105-119, 111 Stat. 2519 (1997), the so-called “Hyde Amendment,” authorizes courts in criminal cases to award to certain prevailing defendants attorneys’ fees and other litigation expenses. In exchange for concessions made by the Government in this Agreement, the defendant voluntarily and knowingly waives any claim that it might assert under this statute based in whole or in part on the Government’s agreement in paragraph 2 to dismiss or not charge certain counts.

20. The defendant waives any and all rights that it may have to bring suit of any type (including, but not limited to, Bivens actions) against the United States or its agents (including, but not limited to the investigating agents and the prosecuting attorneys in this matter). Furthermore, the defendant and any related persons or entities, agrees to dismiss with prejudice any and all civil or other matters currently pending against the United States or its agents.

21. The defendant waives all rights, whether asserted directly or by a representative, to request or to receive from any department or agency of the United States any records pertaining to the investigation or prosecution of this case, including without limitation any records that may be sought under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, or the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a.

22. The defendant and the Government stipulate that any sentence that falls within the applicable guideline range is per se reasonable. Both parties waive any right to contest such a sentence on the basis that the Court’s imposition of such a sentence was unreasonable or an abuse of its discretion.

23. Should the conviction following the defendant’s guilty plea pursuant to this agreement be vacated for any reason, then any prosecution that is not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations on the date of the signing of this agreement (including any counts that the Government has agreed to dismiss at sentencing pursuant to this agreement) may be commenced or reinstated against the defendant, notwithstanding the expiration of the statute of limitation between the signing of this agreement and the commencement or reinstatement of such prosecution. It is the intent of this agreement to waive all defenses based on the statute of limitations with respect to any prosecution that is not time-barred on the date that this agreement is signed.

V. Continuing Business Operations

24. The defendant hereby agrees to conduct all future business operations in compliance with all applicable state and federal laws. In order to ensure such compliance, the defendant hereby consents to governmental monitoring during the term of the sentence and supervised release of such compliance by any entity or business in which the defendant is an owner or officer. Said monitoring shall be terminated upon the termination of any period of probation or supervised release of all defendants. The defendant further understands that, as a result of its guilty plea, it will be subject to a federal firearms disability as a convicted felon. Furthermore, the defendant hereby agrees to refrain from importing any machinegun “parts kit” into the United States for a period of three years from the date of entry of plea; however, the importation of lawful materials subject to currently binding contracts shall be allowed.

25. The government hereby agrees to take steps necessary to reasonably ensure that any federal firearms applications submitted by the defendant are reviewed with the statutorily prescribed time limits.

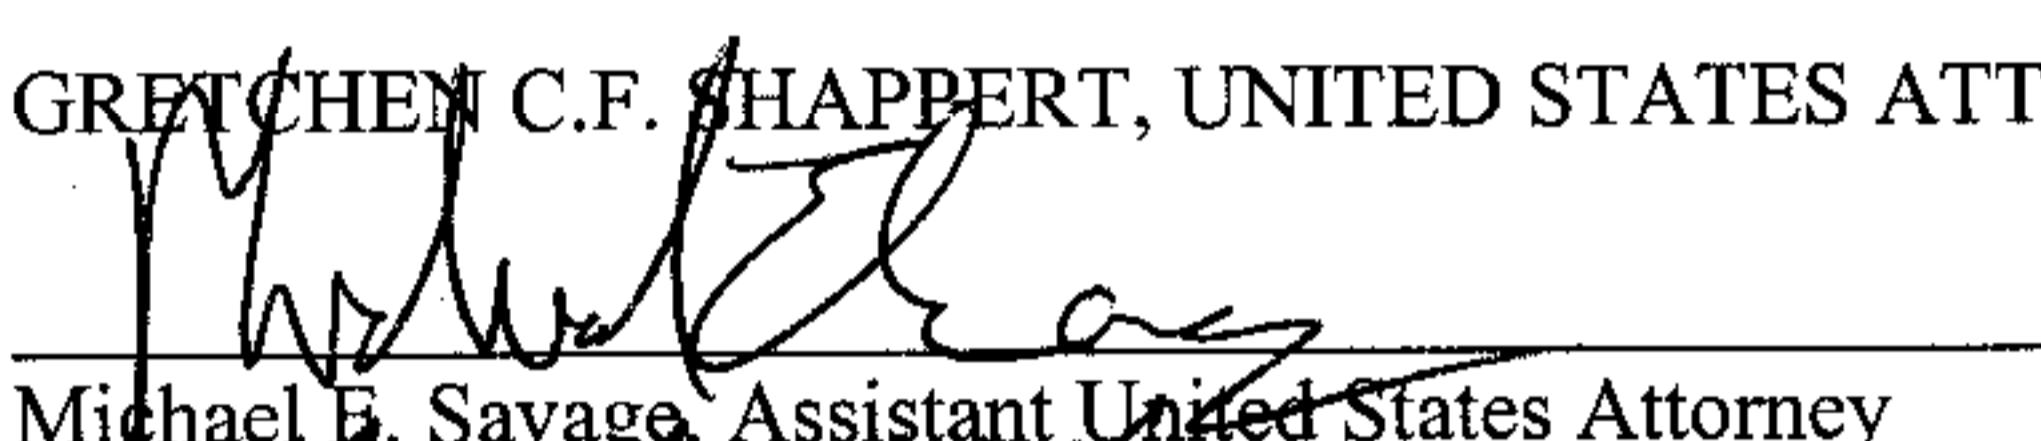

VI. Conclusion

26. The defendant understands that if it breaches this Plea Agreement, or violates any federal, state or local law, or any order of any court, including any condition of pre-trial or pre-sentence, or post-sentence release, the United States will be relieved of its obligations under this Plea Agreement, but the defendant will not be allowed to withdraw its guilty plea. The United States will be free to proceed on any properly-filed dismissed, pending, superseding, or additional charges.

27. There are no agreements, representations, or understandings between the parties in this case, other than those explicitly set forth in this Plea Agreement and none will be entered into unless executed in writing and signed by all parties.
